STATE DOINGS.

The Cadillac News says: "One of the characteristics of a truly great man is that he knows how to build as well as to destroy."

The Detroit Evening News in speaking of the late elections says: "The democrats have had a fearfully narrow escape in New York."

The Saginaw Herald in its review of the late political results adds: "Let us all read the lessons aright and prepare to once more push the Republican banner to victory."

The Detroit Free Press in reviewing the yield in agriculture says: "The crops in Michigan were bad this year, but in the neighboring Province of Ontario they were worse."

The Adrian Educational News says "It is a common opinion that primary teaching requires but little talent and but little preparation. This is a very grave mistake, and it is fraught with incalculable mischief."

The Grand Rapids Times in treating of the inmates of our insane asylums concludes: "They need very little medical care; but they should have thorough and frequent medical supervision on the part of the state."

The Flint Globe warms up the Demagogue: "In no other country is actual labor so sure and conceded a badge of dignity, and the pretended labor reformer such an unmitigated nuisance, dead-beat and scallawag."

The Caro Advertiser and Citizen says of the late General Steadman: "He was the hero who, in a shattered army, in a broken country where no one knew the way, marched his command without orders toward the sound of the enemy's cannon, and so helped save the day at Chickamauga."

The Bay City Call says: "All patrons of the telephone realize that the annual change for its use is extortionate. The market quotations for the stock indicate as much. Bell telephone stock is quoted as moderately active at $207 to $209 per share. Of course the telephone service is convenient and valuable, but that is no excuse for charging the public twice what it is worth."

The Detroit Journal says: "Now that the city election is over with, all classes of citizens should lend their influence to the project for the establishment of a permanent art gallery."

The Concord Enterprise speaks of the syndicate block just erected as a fine addition to that thriving burg and Bell & Rhodes having spared no pains to make it a good substantial structure.

The Alpena Pioneer timely suggests: "Look out for a good stock of wood, and bank up well. You will be glad of your pains every time a howling storm or cold snap overtakes you during the winter."

The Detroit Post and Tribune says: "The most conspicuous public man in Massachusetts, and perhaps all New England, excepting Blaine of Maine, today is George D. Robinson, governor-elect."

The Alpena Argus says: "There appears to be but very few fish in the bay this year. The famous trap net grounds at North Point, Sulphur island, and Seacrow island are failures this year, so far."

The Bay City Tribune in speaking of the electric light controversy in that place suggests: "If the Swift company will erect two additional towers or elevations, each 150 feet high, one for the first ward, and one say at Broadway and Twenty-third, and furnish lights at $100 for those burning until 1 o'clock and 140 for those burning all night, on a five years' contract, it would seem as though the council ought not to hesitate about accepting such a proposition."

The following is of interest: "Quarter-master General Shakespear has issued a circular reminding all interested parties and the public generally that men enlisting from March 6, 1863, to November 10, 1863, in any Michigan regiment, company or battery, except the 10th and 11th cavalries, 13th and 14th batteries and 1st colored infantry, are entitled $50 state bounty. Men are enlisting in there own regiments (after two years service) from November 11, 1863, to February 4, 1864 are entitled to $50 state bounty. Men re-enlisting from February 5 1864 to May 15 1864, in any regiment, company or battery, it applied on the 200,000 call and properly created, are entitled to $100 bounty. Men enlisted from February 4, 1865, April 14, 1865, and properly credited are entitled to $150 state bounty."
